*“No one will be able to stand against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you.” – Joshua 1:5 (NIV)

*Pray for our young people who begin summer jobs, some for the first time. Pray that they would have a good summer in whatever they do.

*Pray for our young people who are working at summer camps this year. Pray that they would be good examples for their younger campers and that they would experience God’s love in a new, more tangible way.

*Pray for leadership as they discern the congregation’s needs for an associate pastor.

*Pray for Sandy Aeschliman, a member of the preaching class, as she prepares to give the sermon June 25.

Notes from the Pastor

Church, THANK YOU for the many cards of affirmation! For the record, I WAS surprised! :) )

From June 19-30, I will be in Harrisonburg, VA at Eastern Mennonite Seminary's Summer Institute of Spiritual Formation. I am very thankful for this continued education opportunity! Please pray for spiritual growth, healthy interactions, and good "take-aways". For pastoral care needs, please contact someone on the Leadership Team—Gary Wyse, Joy Kauzlick, Arlan Beck, Kent Sauder, Terry Rufenacht, or Corey Smeltzer. Also, Deb Lange is now available for visitation. (And please remember to pray for her as she transitions into an expanded role in the areas of visitation and pastoral care.)

TODAY- We welcome Sue Detweiler, pastor at Life Bridge Church, McKinney, TX, (and formerly of this community). Her message is titled, "The Father Heart of God", from Psalm 103:1-13.

NEXT SUNDAY- Sandy Aeschliman is bringing the morning's message titled, "Life is short, live it well" from Esther 4:12-17. Sandy's message is the first from this Spring's "Preaching Class". I look forward to how I believe these messages will bless the church!

In two weeks (July 2)- My message is titled, "How dirty is acceptable?" (in outreach). (Thanks Brent Miller for the theme and title!) My main text will be Luke 7:36-39. (You may also want to peruse Matthew 8:1-4, Mark 5:1-10, John 2:1-10, and John 8:1-11 in preparation.)

Following the worship service this day, July 2, I will be scooting to the airport to fly to Orlando, FL, for Mennonite Church USA Convention. Please pray for my trip and role as delegate there.

And please continue to pray for the Baptism class as they prepare their testimonies for their August 13 baptism—Ryan Rufenacht, Kendi Nofziger, Marissa Myers, Dana Voll, and Logan Rufenacht. Thanks!

Church Notes

The Current Events/Social Justice Sunday School Class will take a bit different approach to Sunday School this summer. Each week we will get together and, in an informal way, talk about our experiences from the previous week, items from the news, things we've read or heard, questions we've always wanted to ask, or anything else that needs to be talked about. This is a great opportunity also for others to come and check out the class and be a part of the discussion.

Are you interested in digging deeper into the BELLS model of sharing your faith that Pastor Jess preached about a few weeks ago? If so, beginning June 25, the Agape Sunday School class invites anyone interested in studying the book Surprise the World: The Five Habits of Highly Missional People by Michael Frost to join us during the Sunday School hour. Surprise the World is a practical tool for cultivating these habits into our lives. The simple lessons in this book will surprise those who receive the gospel--and will surprise you with the overwhelming goodness of the kingdom of God.

A table is set up in the lobby for donations of produce (fruits and vegetables) that you would like to share with others in our church. There will also be a clip board to sign, listing the produce available at your home for people to come and pick up if you prefer not to bring it to church.

Photos are needed for the activity pages of the church directory. Do you have photos of your group being the church? Please send digital photos to Jen Smeltzer at jensmeltzer@outlook.com or put hard copies in Jen's mailbox. Hard copies will be returned.

IMMEDIATE MINISTRY POSITION OPENING: The CPC is in urgent need of a Project Respect school program Director. This person must be a believer, faithfully serving in a local church body. The desired requirements are a Bachelor's Degree in education, counseling, business administration, Christian Education, or a health-related field. This person must be highly organized and possess leadership qualities and an ability to work with the staff and the public. Experience in management would be necessary and a knowledge of grants would be helpful. This position is on a 24 hr. a week, flexible schedule and based out of Bryan. For information or to apply, please e-mail or call Mark at mark@cpcnwo.org or 419-636-5692.

Archbold FISH Pantry is collecting gently-used purses. If you have a purse collecting dust in your closet, why not donate it to the pantry? The purses will then be filled with nail clippers, a nail file, hand sanitizer, tissues, band-aids, and other small items to be distributed to the women who come to the pantry in August and September. If you don't have any purses, you could also help by providing small items to go into the purses. A box will be placed in the lobby this week and any donations need to be here by July 30.
